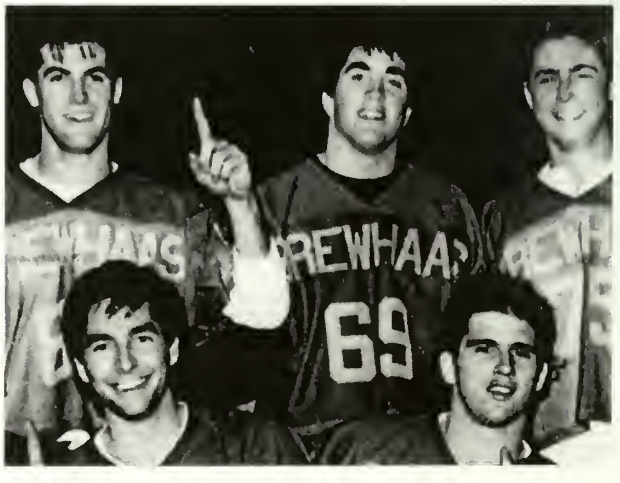
Dedication

Pete Delani



When asked to decide on one person, an all-encompassing role model and reflection of Masco, there is no better choice than our beloved assistant principal, Mr. Delani. As one who genuinely enjoys youth and education he prefers to be recognized as an educator and coach. His brilliance for Eastern philosophy, diehard love for America's pastime, and passion for education brings an enthusiastic and exciting vibe to the classroom and playing field. It is his disarming demeanor and competitive attitude, not to mention his trademark walk that defines this the true Delani. Unfortunately in recent years students have not had the privilege to have Delani as a full-time teacher in the classroom. Luckily though, this gentile giant occasionally pops into History and English classes to share his perspective on relative topics and issues. Most often seen in the hallways, Delani is looked upon as one of the most respected and appreciated members of the school, always making an effort to connect with the students. Whether talking about sports, stigmas of high schools, or just the normal "What's up, how's everything going?" Delani is always there as a helping hand for support and guidance. Already established as a state champion coach in baseball, we the students are honored to recognize Mr. Delani as a champion for his instrumental influence in the success that flourishes here at Masco. From everybody here at Masco, we thank our teacher, role model, coach, and friend,

Dear Mommy,
I'm having a dreadful time here in Alcatraz. The kids back at Tasco are always complaining about how it's a prison, they don't realize how good they have it. I really miss jumping around the classroom while teaching my students, so I've set up a few history study sessions here at the jail. That's right; Mr. Muller and I teach the history while Mrs. Shapiro dresses up as a witch in the other jail cell. Mrs. Lund never listens to my history lesson - she's too busy pirating movies off the Internet. I sometimes see Señor Pierce repeating "Habla en Español" while Señor Martinez sits in the damp corner yelling "Diez minutos." My good buddy Mr. Sinnott won't stop crying - they took away his toy sword when he got too excited acting out "The Odyssey." Upstairs in the maximum security ward Mr. Mitchell throws Naigene bottles out the window for "giggles and grins" as Mrs. Toth writes her 486th Rootboot entry on the cell wall. The one good thing about this place is they let us go in the courtyard to exercise. Hope everything is well, I miss you!
Love always,
Davie

C.A.L. CHAMPS

Hi again!
Just arrived in Salt Lake City and picked this postcard up on the way. We spent the day watching all the sports events; they were a lot of fun. It was kind of weird... we saw some kid running down the track wearing just a thong! I guess anything goes here at the Olympics. We also saw the track team before their big meet... they were getting pumped by eating tons of meat at a big barbeque. Maybe it's some type of ritual, but I heard it's called "Meat Fest" - and it seemed pretty strange. The U.S.A. teams are doing amazing this year. I enclosed some pictures from the events we have been to so far. Here, take a look...

Boys

The Masco Boys' soccer team started off the season as slow as a turtle, but soon they came out of their shells. Both the defense and offense gave some shocking performances, as the team navigated their way to the top of the league. It was no easy task, but the boys still managed to have a fun time playing on and off the field. Both D.B. and G. Lenny played a huge role in the team's success and the wonderful season.

Soccer

What will you miss most about the season?

"Playing with the same kids since I was 7. It's been a long trip, and I hope to carry the tradition past high school." - Ian Shea

"The friendships, bonds, and traditions that we created as a team. No one can take that away from us. That's what makes us such a well-rounded and funny team. I will definitely miss all my guys and G Lenny." - Jon Kinhan

"Definitely playing with the seniors. I've been playing with a lot of them since my freshman year and they have always made me feel like part of the team even when I was new." - Rob Thatcher

Foot

The Masco Football team was more united than ever before. Winning and losing as a team, the boys stuck together through think and thin. Though the team lost many starters, this didn't stop the younger players from stepping up and proving themselves capable of filling the gaps from last years seniors. Tough games were played and the boys showed nothing but heart and intensity until the very end.

Cheer

The Cheerleaders had a great season this year. The girls who had cheered before worked with the new girls to create a strong team. They worked hard all season, while still managing to have a good time. The team showed off their routine at the Cape Ann League competition in November and finished strong!

Field

With 8 returning Varsity starters this year, the Masco Field Hockey team had some rebuilding to do. The girl's had some SSOB's on the team who really stepped it up on the field. The injury list grew as the season went on, but the girls showed an incredible amount of heart, and continued to maintain a decent record.

Volley

Despite loosing four starters, the volleyball team had an amazing season. Coach Faust worked with the girls every practice, and with each game they improved. The girls stepped up to the challenge and ended up going just as far in the state tournament as last year, making it to the North Finals. This was only the second time the Masco volleyball team has ever made it that far. A highlight of the season came when the girls beat their rival, Lynnfield. The team bonded on and off the court, and many new friendships were forged.

Known as a team of great brotherhood, individual accomplishements were complemented by a united team chemistry. From having fun winning at their home course of Bradley Palmer, to indulging in their traditional meatfests, the boys enjoyed a phenomenal year. Swim

This year's USA swim team did amazing in Salt Lake City. With only one bus for 66 swimmers, one wonders how they were able to pull it together. Once driving 30 minutes to their home pool, they would pump up by watching "That 70's Show" in the men's locker room, then hit the pools. Awesome job everyone!

Boys

The boys hit the slopes this season in top form, attacking each gate with speed and determination. They weathered the cold temps, facing off against some of the best ski programs in the region. While battling the cold and facing off against the treacherous hills at Bradford, the boys still managed to have an exceptional time. All and all, the season ended on a high note, and the boys can't wait until next year when they will be soaring down the slopes once again.

Winter

The girls of the winter cheerleading squad gave it all they had completing yet another wonderful season. Supporting the boys basketball and hockey teams, their enthusiasm and encouragement were pivotal in catalysing both teams to victory. Their hardwork was not only felt by the players themselves, but their loud voices and synchronized dances were inspiring to all Masco sports enthusiasts. Despite the score, the girls contributed to making sure there was a positive and energetic atmosphere where ever they cheered.

While pacing around the mat listening to loud music, the guys were able to get pumped up for their matches and end with success. Great Job Guys!

Sporting their sparkling red and white leotards with an accompanying sticker for good luck, these motivated girls shared many memorable moments and laughs. With electrifying performances on the bars and beam to the tenacity shown on their floor and vault exercises, these girls proved what they were made of. What a season girls!

Boys

Stopping for no one in their path the boys of the Indoor Track Team ran over the competition reclaiming the C.A.L. championship. Practices included everything from death defying adventures on the Ipswich River, to running intervals while dodging minivans in the parking lot. Pushing their limits wherever they ran, these boys were rewarded individually while enjoying a tightly bonded team atmosphere. SP!

Although the boys didn't do as well as they would have liked this season, they had a lot of fun along the way. The team bonded at their many pasta parties, and even went so far as to shave their heads as a symbol of team unity. The hightlight of the season came when Masco got the chance to play at the Fleet Center. Between the vigorous games and early morning practices, the boys still managed to play their hearts out. I'm in the airport now, we just got in and I feel like I'm already on my way out. So many people going so many places and everyone is saying I have to be making decisions about where I'm going. There are so many freaking forms to fill out and I know it's only going to get worse. People are already asking me: "Where are you going? It's the most important year of high school." I guess it's tough sometimes to just remember to have fun.

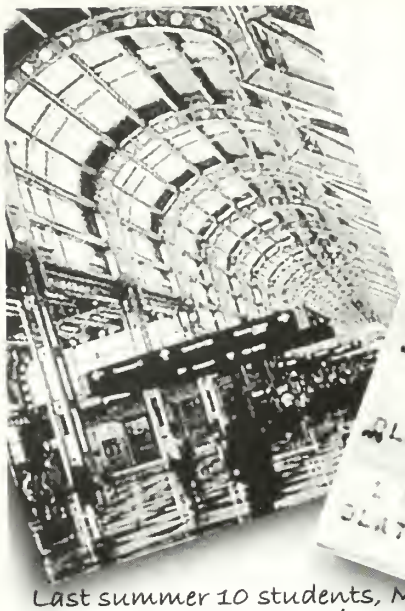
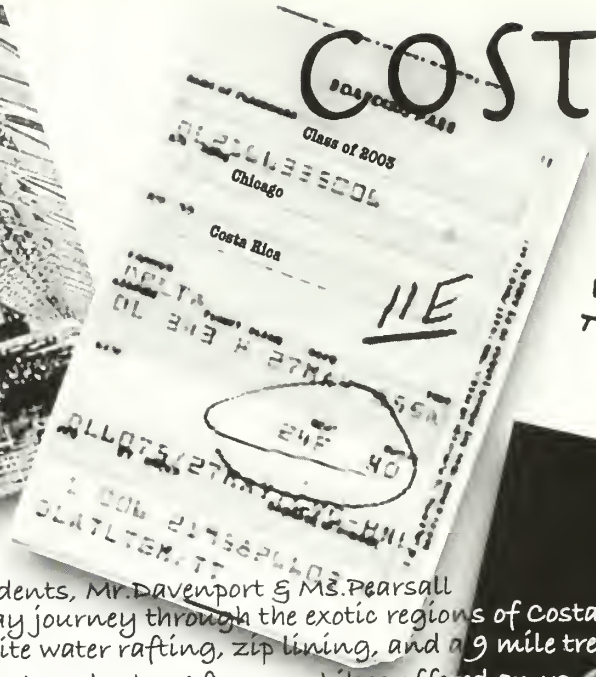
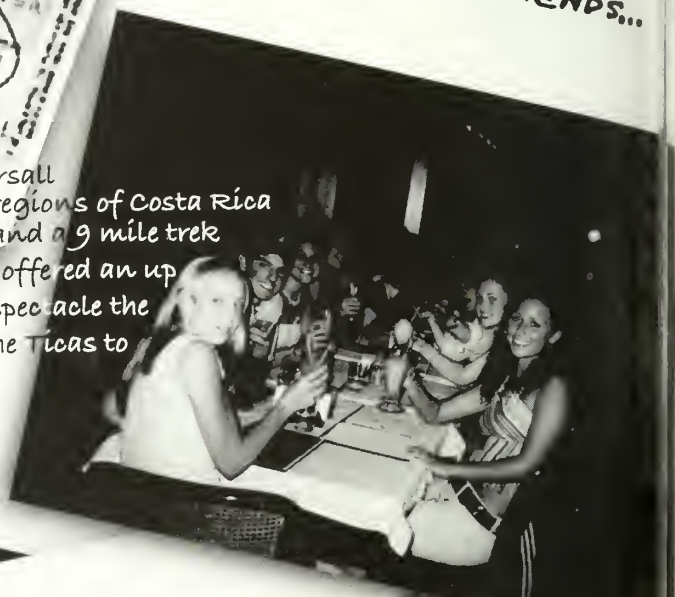
COSTA RICA

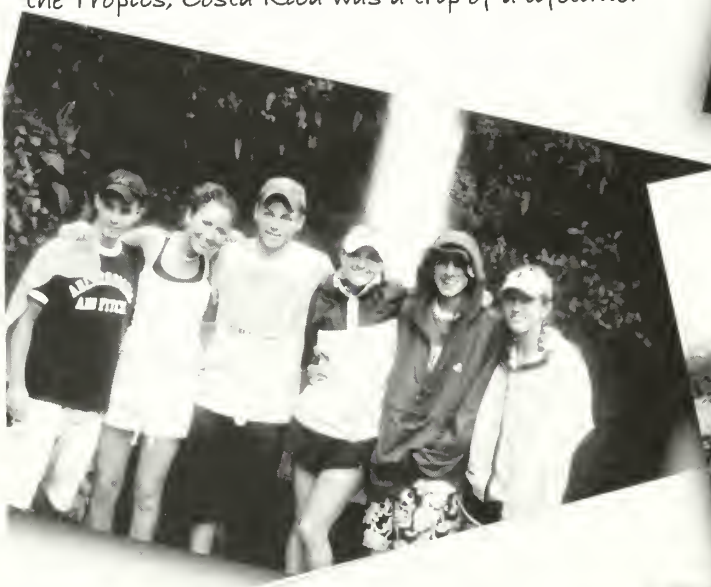




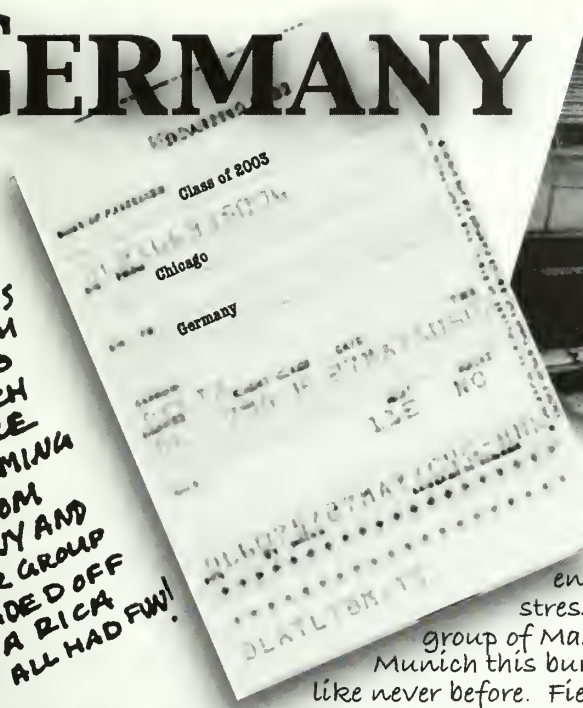
STOPPED BY IN CHICAGO AND WENT TO OHARE AIRPORT TO PICK UP SOME FRIENDS...

Last summer 10 students, Mr. Davenport & Ms. Pearsall Embarked on a 10 day journey through the exotic regions of Costa Rica The trip included white water rafting, zip lining, and a 9 mile trek through the jungle on horseback. Afternoon hikes offered an up close and personal interaction with the wildlife, a spectacle the accompanying NY group often neglected. From the Ticas to the Tropics, Costa Rica was a trip of a lifetime!





GERMANY



I SAW TWO GROUPS FROM MASCO A BUNCH OF PEOPLE WERE COMING BACK FROM GERMANY AND THE OTHER GROUP WAS HEADED OFF TO COSTA RICA BUT THEY ALL HAD FUN!

Mid-June rolled around last year with the encompassing heat of summer. As many of us stressed and struggled with studying for finals, a group of Masco students were flying to Germany. Bound for Munich this bunch was ready to experience culture and history like never before. Field trips all throughout the country fulfilled their 3 week adventure as they witnessed everything from concentration camps to castles. With a new sense for "Deutchland" all walked away with an enriching experience never to be forgotten

Washington, D.C.

Just arrived in the city, D.C. is great! We're having an awesome time! The city is amazing and some of my fellow committee members are quite happy to be away from school. Some kid was dancing through the traffic filled streets with an Italian soccer flag draped over his back as a cape... People are loose in the city and truly making this experience a memorable one! I have to go though, talk to you later!

Life is a journey and everyday brings a path into the landscape. Thank you to those who I have laughed with, dreamed with, those I have just met, those who have listened and those whom I love and care about. You know who you are. Each one of you has brought light into my world and the world our Father has created for us. Thank you to those who have guided me through the path of life and made the sun shine a little brighter. Peace and stay righteous.

Crystal Anderson

As I walk through the tunnel of solitude I look back. The darkness calls my name and pleads for me to come back, but I continue on and ignore it. The stench of loneliness slowly begins to uncoil my tired soul. Its poised fangs begin to relax and pull from my mind. I begin to see the past. I remember those of whom I have cared for and those whom have greeted me on the planes of the living. As I reach the pits gaping mouth, I see the sun. Its warm light greets and warms my weary spirit. The darkness leaps at me. Its claws attempting to drag me back. I close my eyes and whisper. "No." "No!" I scream as I burst out into the light. My old, broken bones land on the Earths comforting sand. The cold water starts to envelop my body. I look to the sky and grin as my soul is thrown into eternal bliss.

-Well this is it. Nova, Buck, Kruse, Becker, Paty O, Steven, Zip, Chris, Pumpkin, Hunter, Lyndsay, Merry, Felicia, Rosie, Wild Child, Kristen, CJ, Jimbo, Greeny, Pucci, Adam, Dan and whomever I have forgotten. Perhaps we'll meet again in Southern Cali. But if not, see u in the soul kitchen. I'll be chillin at the table with my bro and Morrison. So Dim the lights and chill the ham, for we be having a good time.

The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

I can't believe that this is the end of my Masco career. Some days I thought it would never end and then others I looked back and it seemed like it flew by. To all my senior friends: there is no way I would have made it without you...even being able to talk about the possibility of leaving made me feel better. Without all the laughs and the good times, I don't think I could have survived. Lizzie and Jill: you guys hang in there and enjoy your time left at Masco! Make it worth it and don't freak out too bad on the hard days. Mom & Dad, I know you've always wanted the best for me, even when you were driving me crazy. Thank you for being there. Brian, hang in there, you have a long time left at Masco, just do your best and don't let Mom and Dad drive you too crazy. ~ "All your life you were only waiting for this moment to be free." -Blackbird, by the Beatles~

If you can dream and not make dreams your master; If you can think and not make thoughts your aim: If you can meet with triumph and disaster And treat those 2 imposters just the same: If you can make one heap of all your winnings And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss, lose, and start again at your beginnings, never breathe a word about your loss If you can fill the unforgiving minute With 60 seconds worth of distance run- yours is the Earth and everything that's in it And which is more, you'll be a success my son. I am finally here. I've wanted this since the first day of high school, I was one of those kids, who from day one wanted out; never was a big fan of teams or school spirit. I spent most of my high school career in the art room, hanging out w/ a close-knit set of friends, away from everyone else. I could never really figure out those people who based all of their friendships on shallowness and narrow mindedness. In most ways, I'm glad that it's over. It's time to move on. However, I'm leaving with a handful of new self discoveries, and a ton of inside jokes and memories. I need to thank Kate for always sticking by me no matter what sort of crap I put her through, and I Sydney for giving me another chance. Fiocchi and Meinelt, thank you for leading me to some of my new self-discoveries and for pushing me to always do better. Finally, I want to thank my mom for raising me as well as she did. Thank You. I love you. --Amanda

What can I say? It has already been 12 years. Damn I had pretty good time too. Obviously I should thank my family first and foremost (yes mom I will do my HW in college)I think what I will miss the most is not the school but my friends: sluggo-its been 18 years, foster-what do u think of those spinergels, Keith- "hows it goin?", Asa- where's shiniqua?, KIMI!!! We will always be family, Angie-choo-choo-choo-ka-boo!, Steph-silly girl, Erin-u still owe me for the 40 days! Paicere- yea u r a friend too! And I cannot forget: LF,JM,JW+JJ,DC,DG,KG, KG 10th,AD,CLD,AC,RB,RS What would I do without my fav. Teachers, Piacere, Lowe, Due, Walsh, Cameron, West.
If I would have to give advice to the underclassmen- there is absolutely no excuse for incomplete HW. You can always get it from the back of the book, copy, or do it between periods. I mean really, how hard is that. And I will leave Masco with this note: Sometimes the greatest risk is not taking one at all. And Rudyard Kipling, wrote in the 'The Betrothed', "A woman is only a woman, but a good cigar is a Smoke."

Words are our defiance, Words are our shields, Words are the only thing that can protect us, Words are our loves, Words are our hearts, Words share our thoughts without a trace of regret, Words explain ourselves as well as others, Just what we are feeling, Words tell them that we love them or hate them, We know not of our words, but feelings, Others can tell the words we say, Are pain or anger or love or misery, Yet we know that the only way, Is to tell in words of the feelings we feel.
~~~~~It's time to grow up, move on. Thank you to all of those who helped me on that journey. Lets not forget each other.

So much to say.: The 4 years have come and gone, much like everything else. Along the way, many have come, only few remain. Easy Company, Hockey friends, etc. Glad in some senses the end is near. Moo & Rad: Without guidance there is no progress. 101st: Cover, Ammo, pull it out. Unhappiness does not arise from the way things are, but rather from the way one thinks things should be. First of all I would like to thank my mother Joyce, my stepfather Gary, and the rest of my family for putting up with me, and all the trouble I caused. My sister Sarah, you were always there to be my friend when I had no one to turn to. My best friend Chase Decoster, we've been through a lot of crap in the past 2 years, good and bad...but let them talk, I don't regret one thing. Hiren Gudka, thanks for always being there for me and putting up with me during my depressing states of mind. Thank you to everyone who took the time to talk to me and get to know me. Much love all...Peace

These past four years have been really interesting to say the least. I really feel like I have learned a lot about who I am and whom I'm going to be and I have all of my friends to thank for that. Marc-you helped save my life and I treasure everything you have given me, especially your friendship. Jason-you are my oldest friend and no matter what you have always been there. Those who control my heart, you know who you are, thank you for making me feel human and giving me strength to face each day, no matter how desperate. Thank you to my family, past present and future, for always being there. Finally, Dacca, Z, Will, John, Josh, Aleks, Sarah, Julia and all the rest, you all know who you are and I will miss you all.

Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road:
Healthy, free, the world before me,
The long brown path leading wherever I choose.
Henceforth, I ask not good fortune;
I myself am good fortune.
Henceforth, I whimper no more, postpone no more, I need nothing.
I am done with indoor complaints, libraries and querulous criticisms.
Strong and content, I travel the open road.

Due to the fact that it is impossible to fit all the people I wish to thank into this rectangle, I will just like say thank you to my friends, family, and acquaintances. To all the people who have put me down and the people who lifted me back up. To all the people that have shaped me into the person I am today: thank you. To all the JeStErz, bandies, theiftans, crewies, the red army, HMA, to all my G's, the G-Man himself, XC, my fellow 'cool' geeks, the tank, the brick, the immigrant and the doctor, Guy, and to my wonderful teachers (bad ones too). I just want to thank my parents for all they have done for me during high school and throughout life. Some of the best and worst times I have had are in these past 4 years in school and summer. Like when we went to Boston that summer night with GT, MP, and GH... you know what I'm talking about☺. But most of all I will miss my friends and the good times we have. Such as Tully's words of wisdom, the summer time, and weekends all throughout the years. It's been a long four years at Masco and I'm happy that my time here has come to an end. I've made new friends, experienced new things, and have more memories from these past few years then I can remember... Good luck to everyone and have a great life

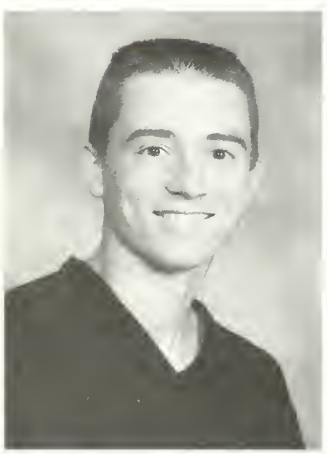
Jesse Welch

ONCE UPON A TIME THERE WAS A GORILLA AND A GIRAFFE. THEY MET EACH OTHER FOR THE FIRST TIME IN A PLACE WHERE THE JUNGLE MET THE SAVANNA. THEY WERE TWO VERY DIFFERENT CREATURES AND CAME FROM TWO VERY DIFFERENT WORLDS BUT THERE WAS SOMETHING THAT DREW THEM TOGETHER. THEY SOON BECAME BEST FRIENDS AND SPENT MOST OF THEIR TIME TOGETHER. THEY SHARED THE BEST OF THERE OWN WORLDS WITH EACH OTHER AND TRIED TO LIVE EACH DAY TO THE FULLEST BECAUSE LIFE WAS JUST SO GOOD TOGETHER. THEY BOTH THOUGHT NOTHING COULD EVER CHANGE AND THAT THEY WOULD BE TOGETHER FOREVER. ONE DAY WHEN THE GORILLA AND THE GIRAFFE WERE IN THEIR RESPECTIVE HOMES THERE WAS AN UNEXPECTED, MASSIVE EARTHQUAKE. THE EARTHQUAKE SPLIT THE EARTH RIGHT WHERE THE JUNGLE MET THE SAVANNA. SCARED ALMOST TO DEATH THE GORILLA AND THE GIRAFFE RAN TOWARD THE PLACE WHERE THE SAVANNA ONCE MET THE JUNGLE. THE SAME PLACE WHERE THEY HAD FIRST MET. THEY GASPED AS THEY BOTH REACHED THE HUGE FAULT LINE. THEY WERE ON OPPOSITE SIDES AND THERE SEEMED TO BE NO WAY AROUND. THEY WERE SO SHOCKED THAT THEY WERE SPEECHLESS. IT TOOK SOME TIME BUT THEY FINALLY DECIDED WHAT THEY MUST DO. THEY WOULD GO ON SEPARATE JOURNEYS. BOTH IN OPPOSITE DIRECTIONS AWAY FROM THE FAULT LINE. THEY PLANED TO MEET ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WORLD. NEITHER OF THE TWO KNEW EXACTLY WHERE THEY WERE GOING NOR HOW TO GET THERE OR IF THERE WOULD STILL BE A FAULT LINE ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WORLD THAT WOULD KEEP THEM SEPARATED FOREVER. THEY WERE ALMOST BLIND BUT THEY BOTH HAD ONE IMPORTANT THING. THEY BOTH HAD FAITH, AND FAITH IS WHAT WOULD HELP THEM SEE THE WAY.

Jesse Wendell

"The man who views the world at 50 the same as he did at 20 has wasted 30 years of life"- Muhammad Ali. Things and people change, but our memories are permanent. Rueg- good and bad times but at least we laugh about the bad ones. Chase- knew you from the beginning, sorry for some of the things that happened, but overall crazy times had by all. Paglia- wow you've changed, for the best tho. J.Monroe- luckiest kid ever, the one that made it out unscathed. Dean- never change, you're the most genuine kid I know. Bode- my mother figure, good thing you're not coming to college with me. D.Brown- tennis, green thumbs, one of a kind, keep smiling. Dan (Smartboy)- so brilliant it makes me insecure. Brad- you're awesome and I'm pretty sure you know it. C.Lee- Gooom, Korean BBQ. Skiing & Tennis- slackers, TWTs, that's how we do. Much Love, esp. to those I didn't mention and my family.

Scott Wilson



My Friends, Its impossible for me to write down all the memories we've shared through the years. I can only hope you know what you've meant to me. You've helped me grow as a person & my only wish is that I have been half as helpful to you as you have all been to me. Willem, Reaper, my best friend, partner in crime, lets keep it that way where ever our roads lead us. Matt, Dacca, Jesta, you always have been, and will be ⅓ of the team. Roach, try to keep the h4x to a minimum. Tracy, Tank, our friendship has grown so much, lets keep it going. To the rest, Eato, CR, Janet, Kim good times, good times. Jocelyn, enjoy the time you have left in the halls of Masco "Do the mental, Shake it gentle." Mom & Dad, I Love you with all my heart, Thank you for all of the care & effort you have put into me. I can only thank you for all the opportunities you have placed before me thus far in my life.

Just remember, It Ain't Nothin but a G-thang.

Erin Lee McCallum

In the hot, August, California sun,
Along came a baby with eyes so blue,
"Let's call her Erin,"
"Yes, that will do!"

Not too long after that
Came Kelly with a bound,
And all she ever did
Was follow Erin around.

After a few years of thought
We came to a conclusion,
"Let's move to Massachusetts"
It's not a delusion.

We packed up the house, the kids and the cats,
Loaded up the vans and closed the door.
Cross country we traveled,
Erin wasn't a California babe anymore.

As her parents we are very proud,
After driving her all over creation,
This all finally culminates,
With her High School graduation.

We are so proud
of you!
Love,
Mom, Dad & Kelly
